Online Course Design Review

(Adapted from OLC Quality Scorecard OSCQR 4.0)

By The 2022 Summer Committee: Dr. Sharon Cooper, Dr. Tom Hutchison, Dr. Robert McDole, Prof. Cynthia Messer, Prof. Eric Mishne, Dr. Kevin Sims, Dr. Elizabeth Sled, and Dr. Sandy Yang

Course: Date: Reviewer:

Online Course Design Rubric: v0.9

		Present	Minor Revision <20min	Moderate Revision <40min	Major Revision 60+min	NA	Action Plan
1. COURSE INFORMATION
1.	Course includes all CU Syllabi Requirements including: • Contact information (instructor and department/school) • Support Services (technical, tutoring, accommodations) • Academic Integrity • Filing grievances • Instructor/Facilitator interaction guidelines
2.	Clear overviews and structure are provided at the course and module level.
3.	Syllabus provides clear course expectations including technical requirements
4.	Course Objectives are clearly defined, measurable, level appropriate, and aligned to learning activities and assessments
2. COURSE TECHNOLOGY AND TOOLS
5.	Requisite skills for using technology tools (websites, software, and hardware) are clearly stated, scaffolded in a timely manner and supported with resources.
6.	Frequently used technology tools can be easily accessed. Any tools not being utilized are removed from the course menu.
7.	Course includes links to privacy policies for technology tools.
8.	Any technology tools meet accessibility standards.

Online Course Design Rubric: v0.9
		Present	Minor Revision <20min	Moderate Revision <40min	Major Revision 60+min	NA	Action Plan
3. DESIGN, LAYOUT, AND ACCESSIBILITY
9.	A logical, consistent, and uncluttered layout is established. The course is easy to navigate (consistent color scheme and icon layout, related content organized together, self-evident titles).
10.	Large blocks of information are divided into manageable sections with ample white space around and between the blocks.
11.	There is enough contrast between text and background for the content to be easily viewed.
12.	Instructions are provided and well written.
13.	Course is free of grammatical and spelling errors.
14.	Text is formatted with titles, headings, and other styles to enhance readability and improve the structure of the document.
15.	Flashing or blinking and red or green text are avoided.
16.	A sans-serif font with a standard size of at least 12 pt is used.
17.	Table meet CU accessibility standards [Need Link]
18.	Slideshows use a predefined slide layout and include unique slide titles.
19.	For all slideshows, there are simple, non-automatic transitions between slides.
20.	Text content is available in an easily accessed format, preferably HTML. All text content is readable by assistive technology, including a PDF or any text contained in an image.
21.	A text equivalent for every non-text element is provided (“alt” tags, captions, transcripts, etc.), and audio description is provided for video-only content.
22	Text, graphics, and images are understandable when viewed without color. Text should be used as a primary method for delivering information when possible.

Online Course Design Rubric: v0.9
		Present	Minor Revision <20min	Moderate Revision <40min	Major Revision 60+min	NA	Action Plan
23.	Hyperlink text is descriptive and makes sense when out of context (avoid using "click here").
4. CONTENT AND ACTIVITIES
24.	Course offers access to a variety of engaging resources to present content, support learning and collaboration, foster biblical integration, and facilitate regular and substantive interaction with the instructor.
26.	Course provides activities for learners to develop higher-order thinking and problem-solving skills, such as critical reflection and analysis.
27.	Course materials and resources include copyright and licensing status, clearly stating permission to share where applicable.
5. INTERACTION
28.	Regular and substantive instructor-to-student expectations, and predictable/scheduled interactions and feedback, are present, appropriate for the course length and structure.
29.	Expectations for all course interactions (instructor to student, student to student, student to instructor) are clearly stated and modeled in all course interaction/communication channels.
30.	Learners have an opportunity to get to know the instructor.
31.	Course provides activities intended to build a sense of class community, support open communication, promote regular and substantive interaction, and establish trust (e.g., ice-breaking activities, Course Bulletin Board, planned Office Hours, and dedicated discussion forums).
32.	Course offers opportunities for learner-to-learner interaction and constructive collaboration.
33.	Courses provide guidance and opportunities for students to share what they are learning and helpful resources to promote intellectual and spiritual growth.
6. ASSESSMENT & FEEDBACK
34.	Course grading policies, including consequences of late submissions, are clearly stated in the Course Information/Syllabus materials.

Online Course Design Rubric: v0.9
		Present	Minor Revision <20min	Moderate Revision <40min	Major Revision 60+min	NA	Action Plan
35.	Course includes frequent, appropriate, and authentic methods to assess the learners' mastery of content.
36.	Criteria for the assessment of a graded assignment are clearly articulated (e.g., rubrics, exemplary work, etc.).
37.	Course provides opportunities for learners to review their performance and assess their own learning throughout the course (via pre-tests, self-tests with feedback, reflective assignments, peer assessment, etc.).
38.	Learners are informed when a timed response is required. Proper lead time is provided to ensure there is an opportunity to prepare accommodation.
39.	Course includes the opportunity for learners to provide descriptive feedback on their experience in the online course, the course design, content, user experience, and technology.
7. Christian Perspective
40.	Course approaches the content from a biblical perspective.
41.	Scripture is appropriately referenced in the course materials.
42.	Questions are surfaced and engaged related to challenges from those outside the faith, as appropriate.
43.	Students are challenged to consider content from a Christian perspective and respond biblically to the material being learned.						